References Category:Software for Windows Category:Microsoft softwareFriday, June 28, 2008 Feeling guilty Can you really feel guilty for spending all of your money on something for yourself? I do think of how much it cost to make the design of something and I think about the fact that other people might not be able to get it but that doesn't make me feel guilty. I feel guilty for not donating the money to the ones that really need it. People go through all the time in a day but I don't think we could ever go through what others go through. I really am trying to be a better person and trying to be more loving and compassionate but sometimes it's just hard to find the time in the day to do anything. 1 comment: Yay! I sent you an e-mail, its still under your old address, so you'll have to change it - my e-mail is thefirstnamehere@live.com. I hope you don't mind, it was just a pretty basic looking e-mail, no cute pics of your new boys. Also I have one more question for you. What do you make? I'd love to know about your business!A New York City grand jury voted on Friday to indict 12 police officers for the 2014 arrest of 43-year-old Eric Garner, who died after being put in a chokehold by an officer who had stopped him for selling untaxed loose cigarettes. The grand jury's vote came after the family's lawyer, Carl W. Stokes, a former district attorney and police commissioner, argued that the officers' reaction to the shoplifting violated state law and that there wasn't enough evidence to bring charges against the officers. The indictment marks the first time since 1981 that New
