FIFA 22 introduces an advanced and more intuitive controller setup, allowing for a new right stick and D-pad. The player will be able to move using any of the following: Right Stick, Right Stick + Down, Right Stick + Up, D-Pad, D-Pad + Down, D-Pad + Up, Arrows, and A/X buttons. The right stick is now the default control with left stick detection, but any combination of movements can be used as the player sees fit. A new Storytelling Experience, which uses a story-driven narrative integrated with story-driven cutscenes, allows the player to immerse themselves in the story. The Player Impact Engine takes a holistic approach to creating a lifelike and intelligent experience, by capturing the entire gameplay world and character actions and fully rendering a believable and engaging scene. A new take on mini-games and the brand new Skill Shot mode immerse the player in a mind-bending experience that pushes them to the limits of their own abilities. Exclusive FIFA Superstars features return with over 50 of the world's most iconic player models. FIFA 22 also introduces exclusive variations of each of those players. Superstar players will be available to use at any time and unlock at the Player Career screen; they will use their own gameplay data from previous FIFA titles to authenticate player actions and use their unique attributes to make FIFA 22 gameplay feel alive. Players' attributes and playing styles and statistics will continue to be shared across FIFA titles. FIFA Superstars also returns with a full suite of customization options and include a new approach to set pieces, allowing teams to exploit their opponents weaknesses. FIFA 22 introduces a new iteration of MyClub, the online living, breathing eSport experience that made FIFA a phenomenon. MyClub is also getting an eFootball Roadmap, a tool that will track the success of eSport in real-time and make it easier to support the continued growth of eSport. The Roadmap will offer MyClub Owners and Clubs the opportunity to collaborate to unlock player progression. FIFA 22 introduces the new FIFA Ultimate Team Challenges. These multiplayer competitions are designed to promote competition between FIFA and MyClub owners. New challenges will be added to the calendar throughout the season, and prizes will be awarded to the winning teams. The FIFA 22 release date will be revealed further in the coming months.
